FOR.. CAMPAIGN

Taller de José is a community resource center offering accompaniment to people in need, connecting people to services and services to people. As a sponsored ministry of the Congregation of St. Joseph, Taller de José exists so that all may be one.

- What: The Running For... campaign is a 30 day awareness and fundraising campaign that brings people together in a healthy way to educate the public about Taller de José, their services, and the needs of their clients. Participants are also encouraged to recruit family, friends, co-workers, gym buddies, etc.
- When: Running For... is not set around one day, instead we ask that participants commit to a 30 day period of running from March 21st-April 21st 2011.
- Cost: Participants will pay a $20 registration fee. This fee will include an official Running for...Campaign t-shirt.
- Where: ANYWHERE! You can run/walk with friends in the park, in your neighborhood, along the lake, at road races, anywhere your legs take you!
- Why: The campaign is aimed at raising funds for Taller de José and awareness for the issues our clients face on a daily basis.
- How: Participants will raise awareness about Taller de José and its clients by wearing their shirts as often as possible while running/walking. Participants will also be asked to take pledges, either per mile or as a set amount from family, friends, etc. We ask that participants try to raise a minimum of $100. All proceeds will benefit Taller de José, a sponsored ministry of the congregation of St. Joseph that serves people in the Little Village community of Chicago.
